

MISS MURIEL WHITE GETS TITLED HUSBAND

Count Hermann Roger Hans Christow Scherr-Thoss Wins Ambassador's Daughter.

PARIS, April 28.—Dressed in a simple gown of blue voile and wearing a large black hat, Miss Muriel White, daughter of the American ambassador to France, was married in the Mairie of the Eighth Arrondissement of Paris at noon today to Count Hermann Scherr-Thoss, an officer of the Royal Prussian cuirassiers.

This simple civil ceremony was performed in person by Roger Alton, the mayor. Only a few of the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom were present. Countess Scherr-Thoss, the groom's mother, was not present, on account of ill health. The ceremony consisted of a recitation of the laws of the French republic defining the obligations of husband and wife, and the subscription of the couple thereto.

The mayor then delivered a brief address, in which he expressed his good wishes for the pair and referred to the distinguished career of the bride's father and to the ties uniting France and the United States.

The wedding presents, which have come from America, Germany, France and Italy, were displayed at the embassy this afternoon.

Few Witness Ceremony.

Embassador White and William H. Buckle, secretary of the American legation at Madrid, acted as witnesses for the bride, while Count Scherr-Thoss and Prince von Radolin, the German ambassador to France, did the same thing for the groom. The others present were Mrs. White, Count and Countess Montausin, W. K. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Stuyvesant, Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford, Miss Buckle, Jack White and the members of the American embassy.

The marriage register showed the age of the groom to be 30 and of the bride to be 29 years. The full name of the groom is Hermann Roger Hans Christow Scherr-Thoss.

At the conclusion of the civil ceremony the party returned in automobiles to the American embassy, where luncheon was served.

The religious marriage, which will be much more pretentious, will take place at St. Joseph's church tomorrow. Mr. White will not be present, on account of the action of the Catholic church in forbidding a Protestant service in connection with the marriage. The bride will be given away by her brother, Jack White.

Count Scherr-Thoss has four brothers in Paris, but none of them attended the civil service today.

The groom's gift to the bride was a cabochon sapphire and diamond bracelet, with a ring to match.

Count and Countess Scherr-Thoss gave the bride a diamond crescent, table silverware, a piano and furniture.

Embassador White gave his son-in-law a motor car, and Mrs. White gave him a silver-mounted dressing case.

Mr. and Mrs. White gave their daughter a diamond tiara and earrings, a dinner service and a dressing case.

Gifts were also received from members of the diplomatic corps in Paris and the French aristocracy.

No invitations were sent to sovereigns and no gifts from them were received.

L. D. S. U. NOTES

The members of the commercial class will hold a meeting Friday for the purpose of discussing their commencement day programme. The class intends to present an elaborate musical programme this year. It is expected that at the meeting held Friday the class valedictorian and other speakers will be selected.

The members of the senior class are making elaborate arrangements for their class edition of the Gold and Blue, the school paper, which will make its final appearance at the school in two weeks. The paper will be in charge of Wilson McCarty as editor-in-chief.

The members of the baseball team who have made a good showing thus far this year have received their "S." This is done each year. A blue sweater with a large gold S in the center is given to the youngster who makes the most creditable showing.

Miss Paul rendered two vocal solos during chapel exercises in Barratt hall yesterday morning. Edward Kimball accompanied her on the piano.

The commercials are contemplating entertaining before the end of the school year. The girls of the class will meet to further discuss plans for the proposed function. From what is in evidence the affair promises to be unique in a great many ways.

Summer school will be in vogue at the L. D. S. U. for eleven weeks during the coming summer months. As given out yesterday morning at chapel exercises, the school term will convene immediately after commencement week, which will be the last day of the month of May. It is the intention of the school board to conduct school half a day during the summer school term. School will commence at 8:30 o'clock each morning and will dismiss at 12:30 o'clock. Instruction will be given in all subjects in the business department, while individual instruction will be given in all mechanic art work.

The pins for the commercial class have all been secured by the students of that class. The pin is of a unique design, and was gotten up by the class president, William Saulsbury.

The next civil service examination will be held at the federal building the forepart of the month of June. Quite a number of shorthand students of the school are contemplating entering the contest. Five girls phonographers will also take the test.

Pimples, blotches and all other spring troubles are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—the most effective of all spring medicines.

NOTES OF "U"

The faculty of the normal school will entertain the graduates of this year in the kindergarten rooms at the university next Friday evening.

The executive board of the associated students will meet Thursday to make arrangements for the nomination of candidates for the officers of the student body to serve next year. The nominations, according to the constitution, shall come on the first Friday in May, and the election comes the week following. A voting machine is obtained and the election held under the most approved methods.

Prof. R. R. Lyman has been called to Bartner, Millard county, by some trouble in the construction of some important irrigating works in that county. He is expected to return within a day or two.

The regular meeting of the German circle will be held in the kindergarten rooms Thursday afternoon. A novel programme has been prepared for the occasion.

The girls of the freshmen class have issued invitations to the junior girls for an "old maid" party to be given in honor of the girls of the latter class on May 7.

The students from the Orem high school who will graduate this spring will be visitors at the university Thursday. They were to have come Wednesday, but were compelled to change their plans at the last moment.

The final appearance before commencement week of the graduates in their caps and gowns will be at the reception given by the girls of the class next Monday. On Tuesday most of the men leave on a mining trip which will consume all of May. The girls have invited as their guests, besides the faculty members, Governor Spry and the members of his staff and the members of a large number of the downtown clubs. It is expected to make the reception a most enjoyable affair.
